Spectacular Sports Stars

The Annual Sports Day was celebrated on March 30 appreciated and applauded by near and dear ones. Shining bright were many stars, we present a couple of them:

• Radiant Rohit

We love you Rohit!

With crisp commands, like those of an army commander, tiny Rohit was a treat to watch as he led the taekwondo team on the sports day. He was loud and clear, confident and commanding, mesmerizing as a small bundle radiating with energy. Rohit, just about 10 years old is a boy to watch as a budding leader. He is friendly, helping and well behaved showing marked improvement in academics also. He is a student of standard V. He is a great dancer and a sports person and was a star of the taekwondo demonstration. Rohit's father is a three wheeler auto driver and mother is a housewife.

• Khushboo, Fragrance All the Way

We'll love Khushboo!

She bounced back, sturdy and striving, Khushboo, a student of standard VIII has survived a serious accident causing severe spinal and other injuries in March 2011. Forced to keep away from school for healing, she returned four months later and what a come back! She caught up with rest of the class and is today reaching beyond academics and participating in extra curricular activities with aplomb. Sincere and hard working, she is another star that glittered bright on the sports day. Khushboo's mother is a house maid and father works as a small time helper.

Hope this fragrance spreads far and wide!

• Be the Change...

A visit of the Be Entrepreneur- Going to School team based in Delhi was truly enriching. Be an entrepreneur is a multimedia skills education initiative to teach children below the poverty line and inspire millions of young people to choose their livelihoods. The team came to test several new activities, books and movies. The children and women's group had the opportunities for two days to work in teams and discuss relevant ideas for their own small businesses.

• Laura's Lazeez Delicacies

Laura Gildmeester a chef and volunteer from Canada has started cooking classes at the centre. For the simple community women who do not even have access to a gas stove or an oven, having Laura teaching them international delicacies is a blessing from the heaven. It's a treat to cook and eat muffins and cookies with their recipes translated in Hindi. It's a sheer joy to learn, taste and discover new tastes of beyond the boundaries.

There is yoga practice by Ashok Yadav, dance - traditional and modern by Nestu Paul and a thriving music programme in partnership with NGO Music Basti in Delhi, directed by Faith Gonsalves. The music mission is to strengthen the voices of children at risk while raising awareness of social global issues like health and education.

• Exciting Exchange

An exchange with school from Auxerre in France is in the pipeline. The children of remedial classes are preparing a series of drawings representing festivals of India. In exchange, the children of France will be providing similar drawings soon.

The children from K.G. and nursery are also participating in a similar exchange with the children from the NGO Edirisa in Uganda linking opportunities to develop friendships, ideas and resources. Introducing the children to each other at this early stage of cognitive development helps them to grow with a better understanding of the world they live in.
